

Machinist

Knowledge and skill required

High School Education and blueprint reading and comprehension are required. Machinist must be able to communicate well verbally and in writing. Machinist must have working knowledge of measurement devices including, but not limited to, calipers. Machinist should have a positive attitude, an excellent attendance record and be a team player.

Scope

Perform tasks associated with the manufacture of parts that meet customer and quality specifications on varied types of machines.

Position Responsibilities

- Works independently to operate machine
- Provides feedback to sales and engineering on blueprints and production issues
- Handles changeovers without assistance
- Performs quality checks independently
- Trains other machinists to meet company guidelines and requirements
- Handles machine adjustments and troubleshooting to meet productivity standards
- Ensures that all responsibilities and functions performed are in accordance with company procedures and meet the quality standards in place
- Other duties may be assigned and are required as part of the essential functions of the position

Working Conditions and/or Physical Requirements

- Standing at machine for several hours to perform adjustments and control of parts
- Able to lift and bend to perform functions
- Able to lift a minimum of thirty-five pounds properly
- Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform essential functions